

Oh and i want to share, that i have a really strong connection to the "Namaste-pose" lifting up the sternum but leaving the shoulders down. Throughout the day, i remember going into cleopatra pose and i have an ultimate connection to it. I feel present and relaxed at the same time.

Thank you so much Claudia for taking us on this journey 